

Isaac Jogues in Wernersville, PA, in 1970, and received a degree in history from Fordham University in 1975. He then went on to teach history at his alma mater Loyola, and by 1989 had received three master's degrees in divinity, pastoral counseling, and business administration. These credentials along with Father Novotny's passion to provide a productive learning environment for the young men at Gonzaga resulted in a $30 million campaign to renovate and expand the schools aging cafeteria, classrooms, gymnasium, and other facilities.

Along with his tireless efforts to improve the school structurally, Father Novotny also ensured the spiritual and educational improvement of the student body, parents, and faculty. With his calm demeanor and strong faith, he guided the school through times of national tragedy in 2001 when the September 11 attacks took the lives of family and friends in the Gonzaga community and again in 2002 during the Washington DC, sniper shootings. He also led the school to great educational and athletic triumphs. During his tenure, courses offered for college credit at Gonzaga significantly increased and Gonzaga's basketball program has consistently been nationally ranked.

Father Novotny had a very personal connection with his students, which I always admired as a parent. He constantly attended the games of Gonzaga's various sports teams and participated with the students in their service projects. In the weeks since his passing, there has been an outpouring of condolences from thousands of former and current students, parents, faculty, and friends who have shared their stories of the influence that Father Novotny had on their lives. Gonzaga will now have to search for a replacement to serve as the school's president, but we will never be able to replace in our hearts such a great leader, mentor, teacher, and friend. May he rest in peace.●
